PRESS RELEASE – 05.24.05

CHICAGO STEPPIN' CLASS INSTRUCTION & JOB RECRUITMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Sacramento, CA (PR & ASSOCIATES BUSINESS RESOURCES) May, 2005 – The Chicago-based style of ballroom dancing classes are now being held on Tuesdays (6:00 pm) and Thursdays (6:15 pm) at the Red Lion Inn, 1401 Arden Way (inside Savannahs) in Sacramento. Steppin' is a derivative of several African American dance forms, The Jitterbug, The Swing, The Offtime, The Bop, and The New Bop in particular. A dance consisting of two people dancing as partners in synchronization to a 6 or 8 count beat to musical sounds of Jazz, Soul, Funk, R&B, Neo Soul, rap music, and now Gospel music. Attire consist of a form of rag time, black tie, and modern fashion designs twisted into a unique style of contemporary designs better known as "Steppers Sharp" usually reflecting a combination of times throughout African American history. The Steppin' dance form is very popular throughout Chicago's African American community. It is a dance of unity and positive atmosphere, currently enjoyed and adopted by people throughout American society under the reference of Hand dancing, Ballin', The Swing, Chicago Steppin', and the Bop. Steppin' is currently one of the most popular aspects of America's social climate, gaining popularity at a very rapid pace, manifesting in many major cities like Chicago, Detroit, Atlanta, Houston, Milwaukee, L.A., Oakland, Seattle, and other heavy populated areas.

The class is open to men and women (over the age of 18 and over). Dance, movement, and techniques will be demonstrated and taught. Music selections for dance instruction include: Contemporary jazz, R&B, clean hip hop and gospel. Anyone interested in dance movement and stage performance is welcome to attend. Participants are asked to come with energy for learning and mastering the dance art of Chicago Steppin'. The cost for the class is $7.00 per participant. Payment for classes can be arranged for submission weekly or monthly or per each session. Private lessons are also available. For more information call (773) 610-0256 or e-mail sacsteppers@yahoo.com

Class instruction for Chicago Steppin' for large groups are available upon request. Classes can be coordinated to meet the needs of students and patrons at your gym/fitness center, community college/university, high school, or church in your city. Chicago Steppin' also provides exciting entertainment at Family Reunions, Birthday Parties, and Concerts. We also provide class instruction for special events, weddings/receptions, retirement parties and club party icebreakers. Our group rates and cost packages for class instructions are available upon request.
