

****ATTENTION AFRICAN AMERICANS of the Greater Sacramento Valley Region******

Do you want to make a serious impact in Educational Achievement?
Are you ready to engage in Political Influence and Economic Empowerment?
If so, be present at the next meeting of .....

INDIVISIBLE
African American Assembly

Next Meeting: Monday, April 16 at 6pm

Place: The Guild Theater, 2828 35th Street, Oak Park - Sacramento

UPCOMING EVENTS & NEWS

PAC 15 Fundraiser: Please join us for an Evening Discussion and Fundraiser with the world-renowned commentator Roland Martin. Mr. Martin will discuss the importance of the upcoming presidential election and the need for African Americans to participate heavily in the political process that will determine the fate of our people today and tomorrow. Tickets are $50 and sponsorship information will be available at the April 16 Indivisible meeting.

When: Monday, May 7, 2012
5:00 - 5:30 pm Cocktails, Hors d'oeuvres
5:30 - 7:00 Program

Where: The Citizen Hotel, 926 J Street, Downtown Sacramento

Stand Up: The school board will be voting to renew the charters of St. HOPE's PS7 and Sac High next week. These public schools have eliminated the achievement gap for their low-income students of color. Let the board know you want more high quality school options like these. The school board meeting will be on Thursday, April 12 at The Serna Center, 5735 47th Ave. If you are unable to attend and would like to send a letter of support please reply to echohill82@gmail.com and a draft letter will be sent to you.

Betty Williams Campaign: District 8 precinct walk happening every Saturday in April and May. We meet at 9:00 am and stop at 3:00 pm. Anyone is welcome to come and volunteer as many hours as they can with a minimum 2 hours if possible. Please meet at the campaign headquarters, 4641 Mack Rd. on the corner of Mack and Franklin in the Raley's shopping center. For more information please call (916) 877-0006.

---

What is "Indivisible"? A diverse group of citizens who are dedicated to addressing the most pressing issues that African Americans face today. Indivisible holds monthly meetings with Mayor Kevin Johnson in which the members participate in discussion and action in the following areas:

- Educational Achievement: Closing the achievement gap between African American students and their counterparts
- Political Influence: Political and civic engagement amongst African Americans
- Economic Empowerment: Economic well-being of the African American community

Indivisible is active and engaged in giving voice to more than 70,000 African American citizens and constituents in the Sacramento region.

If you have questions, please contact Essence Hill at (925) 895-6950 or e-mail echohill82@gmail.com