Rosemont Resident and Attorney Mark Ambrose
Announces His Candidacy for
Sacramento City Unified School District School Board Member Area 3

Sacramento, California
September 4, 2012

Mark Ambrose has announced his candidacy for Sacramento City Unified School District Board Member representing Area 3 which encompasses Rosemont, Lincoln Village, College Greens, Larchmont and the Butterfield areas.

Mark Ambrose was employed as a substitute teacher while attending law school in Southern California. He has volunteered as an advisory board member in addressing student retention and promotion within the Sacramento City Unified School District. Mark brings his first hand classroom experience and parent volunteerism to champion fiscal accountability and responsibility, closing the achievement gap through researched based, results oriented outcomes indicating positive movement toward closure, attracting, retaining and supporting highly qualified teachers, encouraging and welcoming parental involvement and promoting safe schools to the school board race.

Mark is the founder of the Rosemont Youth Football and Cheer Association. Mark has volunteered as a coach for Rosemont Little League and Soccer. Mark was also instrumental as a board member of the Rosemont Community Association in gaining support for Rosemont High School the first new high school built in Sacramento in 40 years and later served as the first Rosemont High School PTA president.

Mark Ambrose is a graduate of Sacramento City Unified School Districts' Hiram Johnson High School and a graduate of Sacramento State University and Whittier College of Law. Mark Ambrose is a lawyer in private practice specializing in family and educational law. His wife Carla is a therapist and both their sons, Andrew and Tyrus are graduates of Rosemont High School. Andrew is also a recent graduate of Florida A&M University.

Mark Ambrose states that being a Sacramento City Unified School District board member candidate isn't about politics, but meeting the educational needs of all children first and foremost. He, his siblings and his children received their education from Sacramento City Unified School District schools that prepared them for college and careers. Mark Ambrose looks forward to bringing his experiences to ensure that all children have the opportunity to receive a quality education that prepares them for their future endeavors.
