

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – July 26, 2013

The Sacramento Realist Association is hosting a “Community Housing Fair” to take place at the Country Club Mall (2310 Watt Ave) on Saturday, August 17, 2013 from 9 am to 4 pm.

The goal of this event is to provide information to the community about all aspects of housing , such various loan programs, downpayment assistance/incentives being offered, credit counseling, meet/greet with agents/brokers, insurance info and much more. Classes will be held every 30 minutes on various subjects that pertain to housing.

Are you looking to purchase a home? Zoritha Thompson, President of the Sacramento Realist Association states: “There is a shortage of homes on the market, the highlight of this event will be the ‘Bus Tour’ of new houses on the market listings! The list of these properties will be unveiled at the event, you must attend to receive this list and be able to go on the bus tour!!”

Sponsors include: Citibank, Bank of America, Partners Mortgage and Union Bank, Peoples Bank, and Chase.
