INSTRUCTIONS for Submitting Application Information

Prepare and submit all of the documents below as one (1) .pdf and send electronically to ewocscholarship@sacculturalhub.com.

- Completed Application Form
- Essay based on "What Makes An Exceptional Women of Color?"
- One letter of reference – can either be a character reference by someone you know, or a teacher/mentor reference (reference cannot be from someone related to you) - provide an appropriate john doe type letter on letterhead as an example
- Current high school or college transcript
- Resume

Essay Guide

The essay gives you an opportunity to be creative and express your beliefs and opinions on “What Makes An Exceptional Woman of Color?” There is no one correct way to write the essay.

Elements or information that you may include in the essay but are not required:

- What is your personal definition of an exceptional woman?
- Why do you believe certain behavior(s), characteristics, or action(s) make someone exceptional?
- How does someone become exceptional? What is the pathway to being an exceptional woman of color?
- Who are people you admire and why?
- In what ways have you been influenced by someone exceptional?
- How will you strive to be an exceptional influence during your life?
- What challenges do women of color face?
- What strengths do women of color bring to their families, workforce, and community?

Letter of Reference Guide

Provide a character reference by someone you know, such as a teacher, mentor, counselor, or employer. The reference cannot be from someone related to you. A sample letter is included at the end of the application for your reference. Tips for completing the letter of reference requirements are:

- Choose people who know you and can talk about a project or work you've done
- Ask in advance giving them 1-2 weeks to provide you with the letter
- Call them directly to ask if they will write a letter of reference for you. Be prepared to:
  - Talk about the project or work you've done with them to refresh their memory.
  - Share what you are doing now if the project or work has ended
  - Share why you are applying for the scholarship
  - Give them information on how to get the letter to you and the date you need it
  - Thank them for their support

- Describe what is needed in the letter of support:
  - How do they know you?
  - What do they feel are your character and skill strengths?
  - Would they recommend you to receive the scholarship?
- Keep a copy of the letter for yourself and submit a copy of the letter with the application

School Transcript

Your school transcript lists the classes you've taken, the grades you received, and your GPA. Transcripts are usually obtained from your school administrative or registrar's office. Contact the office as soon as you decide to apply for the scholarship to find out what steps are needed to get a copy of your transcript. In some cases, there may be a cost to get a copy of the transcript and time needed for mailing.

Resume

A resume lists your education, employment history, skills, community/volunteer service, and awards. Use the resume to showcase your unique experience. A sample resume is included at the end of the application.

We have provided a sample Application Packet that can be downloaded to use as a guide in assembling your application. A Scholarship Application Writing Tips and Helpful Hints sheet is also available to download. Go to the following links:
