Pennies in. Millions out.

In 2013, FanDuel heard claims about a fantasy football platform they didn't believe was possible.

They signed a non-disclosure agreement to see it.

- What they saw stunned them. They saw a blueprint that will change the industry.
- State lotteries are reviewing this format right now.
- Instead of licensing to state lotteries, Stratmish, would like to see YOU earn PERMANENT RESIDUAL INCOME just for PLAYING it!
