About ADEMS

The Delegates

Assembly District Delegates (ADDs) are elected democratic leaders to the state party. They are elected by voters in statewide biennial elections, in odd number non-presidential/gubernatorial/general election years.

ADDs help determine important decisions including voting on endorsement recommendations and developing and promoting the California State Democratic Party's Platform and agenda.

ADDs vote on behalf of the community they represent at the:

1. California Democratic Party (CDP) Regional Meetings.
2. California Democratic Party Convention.

Those who are also elected to serve as an Executive Board member are responsible for voting and representing their community at the semi-annual E-Board meetings.

The Election Process

*Both the voter and ADD must be registered Democrats in the Assembly District for the race.***

There was a $30 application fee to appear on the ballot. There is no cost to vote.

ADDs are elected at Assembly District Election Meetings (ADEMs) every two years, electing 7 women and 7 men (Total of 14 per district) to be Assembly District Delegates (ADDs) to represent their Assembly District.

- This is based on the 80 Assembly districts in the California State Assembly.
  - The Math: 80 Districts x 7 men representing each district x 7 women representing each district= 1120 elected Delegates.
    - 560 men, 560 women elected delegates.

The elections in the Sacramento area include:

- Assembly District 7: Assemblymember Kevin McCarty
- Assembly District 8: Assemblymember Ken Cooley
- Assembly District 9: Assemblymember Jim Cooper

The Math for Sacramento: 3 Districts x 7 men representing each district x 7 women representing each district= 42 elected Delegates.

21 men, 21 women elected delegates in the Sacramento area.

Don't know what district you live in? You can look it up here.

Candidates for 2019 ADEMs

Slates for ADEMs

Candidates will often form slates to consolidate resources and votes, allowing voters to vote down a slate for all 14 positions as a state delegate. Below are some of the slates which we have become aware. We will continue to keep this updated as we find out more about the slates.

Not all candidates are mentioned, not all candidates are on slates.

The candidate's names in bold are running to be an executive board member. The candidate's names that are highlighted are part of the Black Diaspora.

*To be posted*
